There are many ways of overcoming writer's block, but these are some techniques that have worked for me. #3 What is one of your favourite books and why? One of my favourite books was "The Book Thief" by Markus Zusak. The book tells a powerful story with amazing metaphors and symbolism. His writing style, created from the point of view of Death, is extremely unique and compelling. It is a fantastic book! #4 Why did you decide to be an author? I decided to be an author because it is something I love to do. When I was young, I would make up stories, characters and settings constantly. When I started writing them down, it became very fun. I love the idea of being able to share my stories with others. I think that being an author is a great way to communicate with people on a small scale, but still very powerful. #5 Your favourite quote from "already"? "You can't just cry for someone. If you want them, you have to take care of them first." From "already" pg. 248 . #6 What's the best advice someone's given you? "Don't let anyone tell you that your writing is wrong or bad because it is not."- From "already" pg. 283 . #7 History of your favourite band? How did they change your life? I love all kinds of music, but my favourite bands are Incubus, Tool, Nirvana and Led Zeppelin. These bands influenced me in many ways. They inspired me to write music, which I love to do. The songs by these bands also helped me realise my creative side. Before discovering their music, I was shy and uncomfortable in large groups of people. But once I got to know the lyrics of these songs, it made me feel different. They also helped me realise what I wanted to do with my life. #8 What are you currently reading? All of the books that i mentioned in answer to question 7.
